[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.] DECEMBER 20, 1887. As indicative of the interest felt in the development of the granite interests near this city it may be mentioned that under a decree of the Circuit Court of Petersburg the Lynch farm, in Dinwiddie county, situated about six miles west of town, containing 360 acres, was sold at anction to-day for $17,325. There are valuable beds of granite on this land, which add to its value. The purchasers were Messrs John C. Griffin and John Mann, and the investment is considered

The congregation of the West-End Baptist church on Sunday night accepted the resignation of the Rev. M. L. Wood, who has for the past two years served most acceptably as the pastor of that church. Mr. Wood, it is understood, has secepted a call to the Baptist church at Newport News, of which he is to take charge on the 1st of January.

Our merchants generally are well satisfied with the business of the year. Some of them say that their sales have been larger than ever before, and the opinion of all of them is that the trade of Petersburg has shown a most gratifying increase in all departments. A prominent officer of one of the great railroads centering here, in a recently written letter, declared that the people of Peters-burg were not aware of the great in-crease of business that has marked the present year. And in this connection it may be said that the Christmas trade this vear has thus far been almost unprecedented in its volume.

It is understood that as soon as the bill incorporating the Petersburg and Asylum Railway Company shall become a law the corporators—Messrs. Beadle and others—will commence the construction of the road, the cars upon adjourned. which will be run by dummy engines.

Mr. Edmunds thanked the Senator that in 1885 he had taken part in the confrom Florida for his gratifying allusions vention which nominated John S. Wise to him. They were worthy of him (Call), and he trusted that he (Edmunds) could bear them. He certainly had not questioned the sincerity of the Senator from Florida, for he (Call) had stood behind order of July 14, 1886, in regard to of-Florids, for he (Call) had stood behind this polygamist hierarchy every time that it had an interest to advance or any wholesome legislation to resist. He had done so with a great deal of ability and considerable zeal. He could give the Senator the praise of no further action be taken in the matter that body of persons through thick and gest, however, that the interest of the through thin, come good, come ill, and service would be benefited by the retime to do so; and if, in the process of time, Utah should become a State, and the United States Constitution should be changed so that one person might be a senator from two States, he had no

Mr. Riddleberger created some amuse ment by holding up a large printed pamphlet compiled by Mr. Blair from speeches, memorials, &c., on the subject, and protesting against the Senate being called to act upon that as a bill. He had himself voted for the Blair bill the steps of his residence a short time in the last Congress and would vote for it again, but he could not sustain it with such a preface and such commentaries.

Mr. Biair made an explanation on the Grand-Army honors. subject and (in response to other suggestions) said he did not propose to press the bill beyond the usual courtesies of the Senate, which would, he understood, entitle every senator who desired to speak upon it to be heard.

The motion to take up the bill for consideration was agreed to—yeas 38, nays 15, as follows:

By unanimous consent and without displacing the educational bill as unfin-ished business, Mr. Butler offered a resolution for the appointment of a se-lect committee of five senators to inquire into the relations of five civilized tribes of Indians, and whether it is desirable and advisable to give citizenship to the members of the tribes.

Mr. Teller objected to the immediate consideration of the resolution, and it was ordered to lie on the table. After an executive session of fifteen minutes the Senate adjourned.

Mr. Call argued that it was due to a community of 200,000 people to have its the matter of testimony in order that less than a per control of these people.
